Description

GET OUT... OR RIDE THE LIGHTENING! The Police, finally with some proper funding, have been cracking down on criminal gangs, and taking no prisoners! (well, actually, quite a lot of prisoners...) You've been right in the thick of it. The last major operation exposed several corrupt police chiefs, and IT has hit the fan! You've been framed and sent down. Not good! Your friends still have their freedom though, and the escape plan is all set. You'll need courage, cunning and luck to get to freedom and clear your name. This is your last chance to get out, tomorrow, it's the chair for you!
